SEPTEMBER 27TH | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Ryan Irvin, PhD, MS
Associate Professor, School of Public Health
University of Alabama, Birmingham
“The emerging role of epigenetics in cardiometabolic disease”

OCTOBER 11TH | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Dominique Cadilhac, PhD, MPH
Professor Translational Public Health and Evaluation Division
Monash University
“10 years of the Australian Stroke Clinical Registry – the what, the how and the why”

OCTOBER 18TH | E4 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Johann Gagnon Bartsch, PhD, MS
Assistant Professor
University of Michigan
“The Duality of Negative Controls and Replicates”

OCTOBER 25TH | E4 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Donna Arnett, PhD, MSPH
Dean and Professor, College of Public Health
University of Kentucky, Lexington
“HyperGEN—Genetics of Left Ventricular Hypertrophy: Omic approaches to understanding echocardiographic traits”

NOVEMBER 8TH | E4 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Sidra Goldman Mellor, PhD, MPH
Assistant Professor, Public Health
University of California, Merced
“Self-harm behavior and health across the lifecourse: Insights from the emergency department”

NOVEMBER 15TH | E4 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Nengjun Yi, PhD
Professor, Department of Biostatistics
University of Alabama, Birmingham
“Hierarchical Models for Microbiome Data Analysis”

NOVEMBER 29TH | E4 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Mike Thompson, PhD, MPH
Assistant Professor, Cardiac Surgery
University of Michigan
“Applying Epidemiologic Methods to Improve Value in Cardiac Surgery”