DEPARTMENT OF EPIDEMIOLOGY AND BIOSTATISTICS

SPRING SEMINAR SERIES

www.epi.msu.edu/seminars

JANUARY 24TH | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Jennifer Smith, PhD, MPH
Assistant Professor
Department of Epidemiology, School of Public Health
Survey Research Center, Institute for Social Research
University of Michigan

“A Social Epigenomic Approach to Cardiovascular Health Disparities”

FEBRUARY 21ST | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Mieka Smart, DRPH
Division of Public Health
Associate Professor of Epidemiology and Biostatistics
Michigan State University

“Progress and partnership opportunities with the Flint Area Study”

FEBRUARY 28TH | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Katherine Keyes, PhD, MPH
Associate Professor of Epidemiology
Columbia University
Mailman School of Public Health

“Depression’s got a hold of me: Gender differences and generational trends in alcohol use and mental health among US adolescents and adults”

MARCH 21ST | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Daniel J. Schaid, PhD
Professor of Biostatistics
Mayo Clinic
Rochester, MN

“Statistical methods for analyzing genetic pleiotropy (one gene to many traits)”

MARCH 28TH | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Pauline Mendola, PhD
Investigator
NIH Intramural Research Program
NICHD/DIPHR

“Does the ambient environment impact fertility? Findings from the Air Quality and Reproductive Health Study”

APRIL 11TH | E4 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Tony Merriman, PhD
Research Professor
Department of Biochemistry
University of Otago, New Zealand

“Genetic approaches to gout: new insights and clinical relevance”

APRIL 12TH | DEPARTMENT LOBBY 12:00 P.M.
Student Poster Event

APRIL 18TH | PATENGE ROOM C102 FEE HALL 3:30 P.M.
Jiu-Chuan Chen, MD, ScD
Associate Professor of Preventive Medicine
USC Leonard David, Los Angeles, CA

“The Continuum and Heterogeneity of Air Pollution Neurotoxicity on Brain Aging: Role of Ambient Particulate Matter”